For whom?

Your second home free of worries

HomePro

Thought for frequent travellers and away owners.

Our services are designed for second homeowners, such as frequent travellers, people who live in multiple locations or, simply, those looking for peace of mind while they are away.

BENEFITS

Total Tranquillity

Your home is protected, and well taken care of. Enjoy while you are away without worries.

Always informed

Know every detail of your property. Receive inspection reports and have control of who comes in and out.

Customised Service

Tailored solutions to your second home. Improve results and save costs

Protect your Investment

We protect your home to maintain its value in the long term.

Three services for many needs.

Total Access

Access remotely and Concierge

Thought for second homeowners who want to give access to their families, friends or service suppliers when they are abroad.

Supervision Pro

Detailed Inspections and continued care

Designed to second homeowners who live abroad and look for tranquillity while they are away.

Welcome

A perfect home upon your arrival

Ideal for those who want to find a warm home and fully functioning.

Total Access

Manage any access needs to your second home remotely

Manage access to your home safely, for those who you trust, like family, friends or suppliers.

Keep your post updated, receive mail or packages with no complications, and have a trusted team to welcome your suppliers and professionals.
