

BUY AND SELL IN A BREEZE

ULM Fligh run away and more

Discover the business opportunity of a lifetime in the tourism industry in Algarve, Portugal! We present you with an excellent offer: the chance to buy a tourism business (part or full) or acquire an ultra-light aircraft runway with the added possibility of building a hangar and support club.

Imagine having the opportunity to enter a growing market where the demand for unique tourism experiences is on the rise. By purchasing an established tourism business, you will already have a head start with a solid customer base, contacts, and accumulated knowledge gained over the years.

But it doesn't stop there! With this opportunity, you also have the possibility to acquire an ultra-light aircraft runway. This means offering a specialized service for pilots and aviation enthusiasts, allowing them to explore the skies with a lightweight and agile aircraft.

Furthermore, the option to build a hangar and support club opens doors to countless possibilities. You can provide modern and secure facilities for aircraft storage and offer maintenance and support services, all within a welcoming and friendly environment. Imagine creating a center of excellence for ultra-light aviation, where pilots and enthusiasts gather, share experiences, and create lasting memories.

This is your chance to dive into an exciting business where you can combine your passion for tourism and aviation. Seize the opportunity to build an enterprise that delivers an exceptional experience to your customers, with thrilling flights, breathtaking landscapes, and a club that becomes a landmark for the aviation community.

Don't let this opportunity slip away. Acquire a tourism business (part or full) or an ultra-light aircraft runway and build your own hangar and support club. This is the perfect moment to embark on a successful journey in the tourism and aviation industry. And it not finish here...more possibilities are possible.
